(Munich, Germany) May 20, 2005 -- According to Jack Canfield, Co-creator, #1 New York Times best selling Chicken Soup for the Mother's Soul®, Author, The Success Principles™:

“Christine Louise Hohlbaum unearths the universal truths about parenting in her Diary of a Mother sequel, S.A.H.M. I Am: Tales of a Stay-at-Home Mom in Europe. Wherever you live in the world, you will surely relate to the inspiring, witty, and heart-warming stories about a mother who adores her children despite the chaos in their wake and who marvels in the secrets they reveal to her about life, love and laughter. S.A.H.M I Am is a must-read for those who seek to understand the meaning of life at its most fundamental level.”

S.A.H.M. I Am: Tales of a Stay-at-Home Mom in Europe (Mom-Writers Publishing Co-op, a subsidiary of Wyatt-MacKenzie Publishing, May 2005; ISBN: 1-932279-14-8) was released May 1, 2005. S.A.H.M. Hohlbaum is a spokeswoman for all stay-at-home moms. Joining the ranks of Olympic gold medalist, Joy Fawcitt, Hohlbaum was recently added by TeamMomUSA.com to their list of soccer moms. Christine Hohlbaum went from career woman to “supermom” rapidly. She holds a combined M.A. in International Relations, German and English Literature and, until the birth of her first child in 1999, she was actively involved in modern dance. She has since become an expert on marketing, book promotion, and bicultural living. Hohlbaum, a Virginia native, currently lives with her husband, Andreas, and two children, Sophia and Jackson, near Munich, Germany.
